Global Business and Europe

This course is open to students in the field of business, marketing and finance, social studies and to those students who have some background and/or a strong interest in these disciplines and economic topics in the EU.

Course Content

This course offers several complementing approaches to start diving into global world of business:

- European overview (Europe and its historic backgrounds, cultural trends, regulatory framework and economic interests)
- International focus (the European Union as a business network operating in global world)
- Practical issues (business simulations and field trips).

The course will continue with field trips in companies in the Czech Republic and other EU countries.

More information about the course can be found online: www.cbuni.cz/summer-schools

Dates : July 10, 2017 – July 23, 2017 (two weeks, full course)

Deadline for registrations

- 30th of April 2017
- CBU offers 15% scholarships for early registration for this course by: April 10, 2017

Young leaders - International leadership

Rather than focusing on any specific school curriculum, this course offers hands-on learning enabling all students, regardless of background, experience or ability level, to get ahead: self-expression and communication, team-building and small group facilitation skills, goal-setting and personal motivation, decision-making and personal leadership skills.

Course Content

Centered round a weekly themed project, the Young Leaders syllabus comprises theory lessons, interactive lectures, business simulations and real-life case studies that provide a stimulating and varied learning experience.

The Young Leaders programme aims to:

- Improve public speaking and presentation skills in English.
- Develop negotiation, and leadership skills through a series of interactive lessons.
- Gain soft business management skills.
